LOWELL – Recognizing the needs of those who are struggling in the current economic climate, Jeanne D'Arc Credit Union on Saturday donated $500.00 to the Dracut Food Pantry.

“We commend the efforts of the Dracut Food Pantry to help its neighbors in need and are proud to offer our support,” said Mark S. Cochran, President and Chief Executive Officer of Jeanne D'Arc Credit Union. “We hope this donation will provide families with some much-needed relief during this holiday season.”

The Dracut Food Pantry provides short- and long-term food assistance to Dracut residents who are struggling to provide food for their families. The pantry serves anyone who is referred by Dracut clergy, the Dracut clerk's office or any other town organization and client information is kept in strict confidentiality.
